

To reach Ouro Preto, fly into Confins International Airport (CNF) — an international airport connected to major hubs such as Lisbon, Panama City, and Orlando. From there, you can enjoy a scenic trip to Ouro Preto either by private transfer, which takes about 1.5 to 2 hours and costs around US$60-90, or by bus from Belo Horizonte's main terminal, with frequent departures for about US$10-12. Ouro Preto's winding streets and baroque hills reward every traveler with stunning views, cozy inns, and a welcoming atmosphere.

Important Information

Brazil adopts the principle of reciprocity in its visa regulations. Therefore, we remind participants to check whether they need to apply for a visa to enter the country.